

An easy way to secure the oil filter plate for installing a new filter is to bolt it on backwards onto the compressor. Be careful not to damage any gaskets or surfaces.